

John Sheppard

Airman John Sheppard served at Bushey Park, England and was with the 2872nd Detachment 1 in Athens, Greece until about 1963. John was from Haddonfield, New Jersey but moved to Richmond, Virginia shortly after leaving the service and lived in Richmond for many years. In the '80's John worked for Virginia Power Company, in their telecommunications department but later moved to the Commonwealth of Virginia in 1989. John succumbed to lung cancer on April 15, 2010, leaving his wife Cris, four children and several grandchildren.

Anyone seeking additional information may contact Bill Sparkes at wrs@npc-inc.org.